1. An unidentified infantry regiment¹ had its headquarters and barracks on Ivo Lola Ribar Street (formerly Queen Mary Street), in Zrenjanin.
2. An unidentified artillery regiment² had its headquarters and barracks on Hadjuk Veljko Street, in Zrenjanin. This artillery regiment was equipped with small caliber field guns which were drawn by four horses.
3. A school for KNOJ non-commissioned officers³ was located in a building near the railroad station in Zrenjanin. This building had previously been occupied by the Medium Technical School. Graduates of this KNOJ school were assigned the rank of sergeant.
4. The Zrenjanin Airfield is located about one kilometer south of the city. The airfield has four paved runways, each 25 to 30 meters wide, which were constructed by the Germans during World War II. Underground ammunition dumps were located on the west side of the airfield. An unidentified air force unit, equipped with Soviet-type IL-2 planes, was stationed at the Zrenjanin Airfield.
